"ARCHIVE ENTRY #03"

“You don’t always hear what I say... but you might feel it.”

An introduction to the mind behind the music

Mauris30

There's a version of me
people see...
and a version of me that
only exists in my thoughts.
This Song isn't about being understood.
It's about being honest.
I don't make music to impress people.
I make it because some things don't sit right in silence.
"BETTER VERSION" is
where those thoughts go.

THE IDEA BEHIND "BETTER VERSION"

"BETTER VERSION" isn't just a sentence.
It's a feeling.
It's that space between:
what you say
and what you actually mean
It's the things you think about late at night...
but never explain to anyone.
This isn't loud music.
This is internal.

WHAT INSPIRED THE SOUND

Some of these songs came from:

- overthinking
- isolation
- pressure to figure life out

Not everything was clear when I made them.

Some of it still isn't.

But that's the point.

THE MUSIC

“This song came from a moment I couldn’t explain at the time.”

What I was feeling:
overconfidence
awareness
True to self

This wasn’t just music...
it was a way to process something
I didn’t fully understand.
What you might hear:
Pain? Growth? Confusion?
I’ll let you decide.

— LYRICS WITH MEANING

“living in a world where you chasing a dream
and everything u see ain’t really what it seems same shit just a different scene”

Everyone is chasing something but the real question is Did we choose the dream... or were we taught to chase it?
It’s not just a dream anymore—it’s a race people didn’t consciously enter.

“used to want to save the world but now I’m running away”

“I used to think I could fix everything...
people, situations, even myself.”
“But somewhere along the way, I realized
not everything wants to be saved.”
and some things stay broken.”
“So I stopped running toward everything...
and started running away from what drains me.”

“same niggas telling me
stop... they don't know
what it cost
I keep my shit to myself
cause you don't know what I lost”

“People will tell you to stop like they understand your path...
but they weren't there
when you had to sacrifice parts of yourself to keep going.”
“Not everything I've lost
is visible.
Some of it changed how
I think... how I move...
how I trust.”
“So I stopped explaining myself.”
“Not because I can't...
but because not everyone is meant to understand.”
